Activities in the South at Halloween—Other Notes of Interest

Dear Friends: Since my letters have been late for the paper, skipping one week, I have waited this week to tell you of our Halloween celebrations. They took the regular form of it here, with a parade on the 31st of October, and a party at the Junior High, given by the Home Club. Then there was one at the Y. W. C. A., given by the Girl Scouts, of course she wanted a new costume for this as they all knew her in costume after they unmasked. I made one of white cheesecloth fringed and asked to represent "A Maine Girl." As it is like a muslin ball, parts of costumes. They pronounced it unique, as representing her home state. Then there was a "Halloween Festival" given by the Domestic Science Club at the school. We all went and enjoyed the different booths and were treated to confetti streamers by the pumpkins and spoons who had been made by the girls in the school. The girls in the gypsy's children came up to the Maine brand and have been used to in early fall. We drained it, however. The impurities and devil salads were very attractive. The booths were very attractive.

The grand celebration came Saturday night. As I did not begin with firing of the cannons, I will begin with the parade. It was a very fine one, and it continued until midnight. Of course we went over to the Junior High for the party. There were many friends and many guests. The girls in the gypsy's children came up to the Maine brand and have been used to in early fall. We drained it, however. The impurities and devil salads were very attractive. The booths were very attractive.

Results of the General Election

The success of the opposition was not so pronounced as anticipated by the writer, and the "wild asses of the prairie" have the balance of power in both houses of Congress. The surprise was the defeat of Senator Wm. M. Butler in Massachusetts and Albee Pomeroy in Ohio. Personal influences decided the result in both cases, which could not be known by the writer. Nevertheless, his forecast of the general results was a pretty close guess. The forecast for the Maine Senatorial Primary proved to be correct in every particular. The Pacific States, with Idaho, Utah and Nevada as indicated, went strong for the dominant party. The "Greaser" element appears to be very strong in Arizona and New Mexico.

The defeat of Butler in Massachusetts—the power behind the administration—can but be interpreted as a blow to President Coolidge. There has been an element opposed to him in his own party it ever appears, since he was Governor. This faction was not for him in the national convention of 1920 at Chicago. Had it been, he might have been nominated for President instead of Warren G. Harding.

The talk of a third term is practically dead. Massachusetts has dealt the President a deadly blow, since the success of his administration, is dependent upon what takes during the remainder of his term in office. But whatever mischief Massachusetts has done, his friends in this state say Maine will not follow on him. "Calvin's" call to Maine will not be vain.

There is a controversy between California and Arizona, drawing water from the Colorado River. This stream of water, if sufficiently dammed is said to have the greatest storage capacity of any in the world. Seven states are industrially interested—California to the greatest extent, because it must have water for the lands in the southern part of the state. Arizona stands for the dam in the manner—not willing or unable to develop the water power in its own state, or to let California take from the river what she needs. It's a great question, this controversy—too great to be elaborated here. The Government has been applied to, to build dams and take sides. It looks like California and some other states are being favored by the dominant party which may account in no small measure to the results in the Pacific and some of the Mountain States.

The great problem which confronts the country should be treated from the standpoint of constitutional law, common sense and business, rather than politics. The Middle West needs cheaper transportation, but here it confronts union labor prices and regulations, the result of the government taking over the control of the railways during the war.

The country been put in a state of defense when the war opened, all of these conditions might have been avoided, but it is idle now to make collections. Conditions exist which must be met and remedied.

I look to the South to stand by its conservatism when the antics of the wild asses will be harmless—Uncle Lem.

BUCKFIELD

Mrs. Adeline Forbes, widow of the late Henry B. Forbes, passed away Friday noon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles E. Holmes, after a long illness. She was born in Cambridge, the daughter of Nelson and Adeline Thompson Abbott. She leaves one daughter, Mrs. Charles E. Holmes, a sister in Massachusetts, and many grandchildren. CALEB'S FAITHFULNESS RE-WARDED

LESSON TEXT—Josh. 14:6-16.
GOLDEN TEXT—I wholly followed the Lord my God.
PRIMARY TOPIC—The Brave Spy Returned.
JUNIOR TOPIC—The Reward of Service.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Caleb, the Courageous.
TWO PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Caleb's Faithfulness That Followed Whole-hearted Obedience.

I. Elements of Caleb's Character.

1. Independence of spirit (Num. 13:6).

Though the multitude clamored to follow the report of the ten, Caleb determined to stand alone. This is an element in human character which is highly important. One should stand for what he knows to be right, regardless of the sentiment of the crowd.

2. True to convictions (Josh. 14:6, Num. 14:6-9).

What Caleb knew and felt he spoke out. He did not wait for the opinion of others and then modify his to suit the populace. A true man and one who can be trusted will be loyal to his convictions.

3. Fearless (14:12).

He did not ask for some easy place.
He did not wish to thrust someone else into the place of difficulty. He went to go into the place where it would require fighting in order to drive out the giants which were in the land.

4. Courageous (Josh. 14:12, cf.
Num. 14:6-9).

This courage he displayed when he stood that they were able to go up and take the land. Forty-five years had elapsed since that time. He would be considered an old man now.
He still heeded that place for an inheritance which would require some fighting. He said, "I am as strong this day as I was in the day that Moses sent me, as my strength was then, even so is my strength now for you."

5. Loyalty to God (Josh. 14:3, cf.
Num. 14:24).

He served God with a whole-hearted devotion; indeed, this is the way to his character.

6. Caleb Laying Claim to His Inheritance (vv. 6-12).

Caleb did not come alone to make his claim. He came to the presence of the children of Judah, lest he be suspected of taking advantage. He did not wish to wait until after the war was cast, for God had already given a certain portion to him. It was useless to ask God to decide a matter which He had already determined. The basis of his plea was:

1. The ground of his service (vv.
6-8).

He had endangered his life in spying out the land—had gone to Hebron when the giants were there. He brought back a true report when his brethren were all against him. He bore his testimony and insisted that they go up and take the land though he do so at the expense of the displeasure of his brethren and necessitated his standing practically alone.

2. On the ground of the oath of Moses to him (v. 9).

Joshua had respect for Moses, and was bound to follow the counsel of his faithful man whom he had succeeded. This plea was effective.

3. On the ground of God's promise dealing with him (vv. 10-12).

God had preserved him in bodily health. Though he was now eighty-five years old, his natural forces were undiminished. He said, "I am as strong this day as I was in the day that
you."

4. Joshua Giving the Inheritance to Caleb (12:14, 15).

1. Joshua blessed Caleb (v. 13).
He not only acquiesced in Caleb's claim, but bestowed the blessing of God upon him in it.

2. The inheritance given (vv. 13, 14).

Hebron was the name of the inheritance. The name Hebron means fellowship. It was given because Caleb had fully followed the Lord. Only those who fully follow the Lord can enjoy fellowship with Him. Though Caleb now legally possessed Hebron, it was necessary for him to fight to drive out the giants who infested it.
In Christ we have an inheritance which God has given us. We too, must fight because the enemy is unwilling to relinquish his claim upon it.

Believing in Christ

Many men do not believe in Christ because they do not want to want Christ demands of them. Their doubts are not intellectual, as they pretend, but practical. They deny Christ so as to escape obligation and effort.—

Praying for Others

I have been benefited by praying for others; for by making an errand to God for them I have gotten something for myself.—Rutherford.

Plans for Extension Work

Farm Bureaus Making Plans for the Coming Year's Work

Now that the county extension plans for 1927 have been made in each county the next step is for each of the organized communities to arrange their plans for the coming year. There are in the state 233 communities desirous of arranging a home economics extension program for 1927. Of this number twenty-one are in Oxford County. Sometime during the month of either December or January, a planning meeting will be held when the people of the community will get together to make their plans for next year.

Every county in the state has included in its program the military work. It is only natural that women would be interested in this project when during this fall season they have been able to make a felt hat for $2.00, which would cost at least three times that amount to buy.

When it comes spring housecleaning time many women are interested in improving their homes by changing the wall paper or refinishing furniture or some other work of this nature. At this time such projects as kitchen improvement, home furnishings or renovation of furniture are needed to furnish suggestions.

There is evidence, too, that women are more interested now than heretofore in providing their families with the proper food in order to maintain health. The old fashioned idea of providing a great plenty of everything, regardless of the kind of food is now passing, even in our rural districts, and the balanced meal is becoming more common.

It is such subjects as these that the home demonstration agents discuss at the meetings to be arranged for next year.

These agents keep informed of the latest home economics developments and are glad to help the communities with their problems. Every woman in these communities in which organized home economies work is to be conducted in 1927 is invited to attend the planning meeting held in her community in order to help make the home economics plans for next year and thus be sure that she will get some help on the problems which confront her.

Real Balsam For

Stubborn Coughs

Especially Those that Common Cough Syrups Have Failed to Help

For any kind of a cough, but especially for the stubborn, hang-on kind that persists and keeps you awake nights, Adams' Botanic Cough Balsam is strongly recommended.

It acts immediately. Like a soothing healing poultice, it goes to the sore affected part and spreads itself completely. This brings immediate relief and speedily conquers the cough.
It is absolutely safe for all ages. Adams' Botanic Cough Balsam contains the very best of nature's herbs. The contents are printed plainly on every bottle. Grandmother will tell you it's the cough balsam to use. She will recognize its curative ingredients.

Adams' Botanic Cough Balsam is so different from ordinary remedies and so carefully made that if a druggist were to make it up for you, it would take him 6 hours. Its cost is but a few cents. Made in a modern laboratory in large quantities, but as carefully as if it were your private prescription. Adams' costs only 35 cents and is less expensive than other cough syrups sold today.

Adams' contains no opiates. It is pleasant to take, positive in results and most highly recommended for children.

Get a bottle at any drug store.
